CHIEF REAL TIME COURT REPORTER

SALARY RANGE: $69,484.00 PG/C13* (SMV)

RECRUITING FOR: Superior Court of Delaware

LOCATION: Leonard L. Williams Justice Center, City of Wilmington, (Please check this location on your application).

*Salary applicable for promotional or lateral transfer opportunity is based upon the actual current rate of the incumbent employee.

Summary Statement:

Incumbent is responsible for supervising and participating in specialized stenographic work in the verbatim recording and transcribing of trials, proceedings, hearings and conferences in Superior Court.

Nature and Scope:

Incumbent performs with direction from the Court Administrator and Deputy Court Administrator and with general supervision from a Judge or Commissioner. In addition to court reporting responsibilities, the incumbent supervises other Court Reporters and support staff. An incumbent has contact with other court personnel, defendants, witnesses, the Attorney General's Office, the Public Defender's Office, private law firms, insurance companies and members of private industry for arranging for the preparation of transcripts, confirming quoted material and obtaining spelling of technical terms and proper names. A significant aspect of this position is working with the Assistant Chief Court Reporter on the scheduling and assigning of court reporters to ensure adequate coverage for all proceedings.

Essential Functions:

- Supervises other Court Reporters and clerical support staff; interviews and tests applicants and makes recommendations on their hire; provides new employee orientation and training; provides guidance to and coverage for court reporters in other counties on an as-needed basis.
- Oversees office operations to ensure conformity with applicable rules and procedures; oversees the maintenance of records and files; monitors transcript production; monitors proper labeling and storage of court reporters' reports; initiates office policies and procedures including the design of forms necessary for scheduling, recordkeeping, etc.; monitors and approves purchases of office supplies and equipment.
- Prepares stenographic reports of court trials, hearings or conferences where verbatim records are required by law; identifies participants by name to facilitate recordings; reads aloud statements of participants as requested during court proceedings or upon subpoena from another Court or before a Judge in Chambers; places identifying marks in supplemental material for inclusion in finished transcript.
- Produces transcripts, proofreads, ensuring corrections are made; reviews for technical accuracy and pagination, certifies documents, collates, binds and delivers completed transcripts; files transcripts with appropriate court.
- Maintains files and records of notes indexed to facilitate ready reference; maintains a log and daily record of court proceedings reported.
- Researches legal, medical, scientific and technical reference sources to ensure accuracy of court records.
- Serves as staff liaison with the Court, members of the Bar Association, litigants and other court-related departments.
- Performs confidential and report-related duties as required by a Judge.

Minimum Qualifications:

Applicants must show in the judicial application; education, training and/or experience in each of the following areas. Failure in any one area will result in a rating of "Not Qualified." (Resume, transcripts and training certificates may be included as supporting documentation. Resumes may not be substituted for the application.)

1. Experience as a Real-Time stenographic reporter recording and transcribing verbatim proceedings of judicial or quasi-judicial hearings, conferences and meetings in a court system, and registered professional Reporter (RPR) from the National Court Reporters Association for the duration of employment.
2. Knowledge of staff supervision; which includes planning, assigning, reviewing and evaluating the work of others.
3. Experience with courtroom procedures and legal terminology.
4. Experience in office management; which includes managing, directing and coordinating office operations to ensure efficient operation of the office. Analyze and recommend improvements in work flow and other procedures.

Condition of Employment:

- A satisfactory criminal background check is required as a condition of hire and to maintain employment.
- Direct deposit of paychecks is required as a condition of employment.
